IS YOUR COMMUNITY READY FOR THE ONE GIGABIT REVOLUTION?

Find out if you're ready—and what to do if you're not—with the latest publication from CENIC's One Gigabit or Bust Initiative, "On the Road to a Gigabit: Are We There Yet?" It's a clear, easy-to-use guide designed to assess the readiness of your town, city, county, state or country to join the one gigabit broadband world. You'll learn where your community falls along a continuum of readiness—from the stage-one community with a minimum of the necessary technology and applications to the stage-four community, which has very advanced technology and ubiquitous applications.
